Educational information only

Information on this website, including articles, FAQs, videos, and downloadable materials, is for general educational purposes only. It is not individualized medical advice and is not a substitute for an examination, diagnosis, or treatment by a qualified health care professional. Reliance on any information appearing on this website is solely at the user's own risk.

No patient relationship or treatment advice

Use of this website, including sending a message through the general contact form, does not create a physician-patient relationship. Do not use the website to diagnose a condition, make treatment decisions, change medication, or delay seeking care. Discuss your individual questions with your treating clinician. Telehealth services, where available, are provided only after completion of required registration, consent, and clinical screening procedures established by the Practice.

No emergency monitoring

The website, email, contact form, and routine phone or text channels are not monitored for emergencies. If you think you may have a medical emergency, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency department now. Do not wait for a response from the Practice.
